

COSTUME PLOT - "TALLEY'S FOLLY"

by Lanford Wilson

Place: An old boathouse on the Talley place, a farm near Lebanon, Missouri

Time: July 4, 1944 in the early evening

Only two characters in the show and it is performed without an intermission.

MATT FRIEDMAN - Double breasted, two piece suit: more sensible than stylish

White or cream color shirt

Period necktie - script reference that it is "new"

Belt

Dark socks

Sensible shoes

Eyeglasses

Handkerchief

Pocket Watch

Prop: ice skates, which he puts on in the boathouse

SALLY TALLEY - Tasteful, light color or print dress of the period: it is new

Low heeled shoes or period sandals

Unobtrusive jewelry: earrings, small bracelet, hair combs to hold hair off the face